Revise 9. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION by adding the following paragraph:

If confidential data or information is required to be disclosed pursuant to court order or other lawful requirement, immediate written notice of the requirement for such disclosure shall be given to the disclosing party (the party that disclosed confidential data or information to the other party, the receiving Party) prior to making any disclosure, and the receiving Party shall cooperate as the other may reasonably request in resisting the disclosure or obtaining a protective court order or other protective arrangement.
